

Online safety advice for parents and carers

NSPCC

The NSPCC has a 'Net Aware' campaign that helps educate about how to stay safe online.

CEOP

The Child Exploitation and Online Protection (CEOP) Centre is dedicated to eradicating the sexual abuse of children. They are a Government agency that is part of UK policing and very much about tracking and bringing offenders to account either directly or in partnership with local and international forces.

Childnet

Childnet works directly with children and young people from the ages of 3-18, as well as parents, carers, teachers and professionals, finding out about their real experiences online, and the positive things they are doing.

Watch with your child – ages 7 to 11 years – to learn about E Safety – The adventures of Kara, Winston and the Smart Crew

ThinkuKnow

The Child Exploitation and Online Protection (CEOP) Centre has set up its own educational website which has been designed and written specifically for children, young people, teachers, parents and carers.

Watch with your child – ages 4 to 7 years – to learn about E Safety – Jessie and Friends

Digizen

The Digizen website provides information for educators, parents, carers, and young people. It is used to strengthen awareness and understanding of what digital citizenship is and encourages users of technology to be and become responsible DIGItal citiZENS. It shares specific advice and resources on issues such as social networking and cyberbullying and how these relate to and affect their own and other people's online experiences and behaviours.

Smartie the Penguin

Join in with Mummy Penguin's song and follow the adventures of Smartie the Penguin as he learns how to be safe on the internet. There are two versions of the story each for EYFS, Year 1 and Year 2.

Safer Internet Centre

Comprehensive parents guide to technology, including social media guides, and games consoles.

Safer Internet Day information

Safer Internet Day is celebrated globally in February each year to promote the safe and positive use of digital technology for children and young people, and to inspire a national conversation about using technology responsibly, respectfully,

Online safety advice for parents and carers

critically, and creatively. Coordinated in the UK by the UK Safer Internet Centre, Safer Internet Day is celebrated in over a hundred countries coordinated by the joint Insafe/INHOPE network, with the support of the European Commission, and national Safer Internet Centres across Europe